FAYETTE STATE PARK & HISTORIC TOWNSITE

4785 II Road
Garden, Michigan 49835
Phone: (906) 644-2603

Fayette was once one of the Upper Peninsula's most *productive iron-smelting operations. Located on the Garden Peninsula at Snail Shell Harbor. When the charcoal iron market began to decline, the Jackson Iron Company closed its Fayette smelting operation in 1891. It is now a completely restored village including 22 historic buildings, museum exhibits and the visitor center, which can be toured May through October.

The historic site is located in Fayette State Park*

HISTORIC MANISTIQUE WATER TOWER

River Street
Manistique, Michigan 49854

The Schoolcraft County Historical Park, in Manistique, features a museum and the historic 200 foot tall brick water tower. The octagonal tower, built in 1922, commemorates the birth of Manistique's municipal water works. The Tower, park and museum are maintained by the Schoolcraft County Historical Society and are a short stroll from the Siphon Bridge

BISHOP BARAGA SHRINE

near Indian Lake
Manistique, Michigan 49854

During his lifetime, Baraga founded many missions in northern Michigan. The *original Indian Lake mission, the third of Baraga's faith, was built in anticipation of his first visit to the area in May of 1832.

The chapel, built by local Chippewas, used traditional Indian construction methods and materials such as logs and bark.
The Bishop Baraga Shrine near Indian Lake includes a chapel, Indian dwellings, and buildings open to the public.*

SEUL CHOIX POINT LIGHT

905 S Seul Choix Road
Gulliver, MI 49840
Phone: (906) 283-3183

Seul Choix Point Lighthouse

(pronounced SIS-

SHWA) in nearby Gulliver, Michigan was built to light the way for the increasing number of vessels carrying the iron ore that was being shipped out of Escanaba, MI. Seul Choix Point Lighthouse is now a community park for everyone to enjoy. Built: 1895 this light, whose name is French for "only choice", was once the center of a thriving fishing community in the only harbor of refuge along this stretch of Lake Michigan. Today, the lighthouse complex is the only thing that remains active.
